HEARTS BY ERMINIE RIVES COURAGEOUS

Copyright, 1902, by The Brown-Merrill Company

Again and again Foy laid his hand upon Armand's shoulder, taking no thought, but still the Frenchman withheld it. Instead his leaping point slashed the other's coat to flapping ribbons, pricked him on the thigh, in the armpit, in the hand—wasp stings that drew blood and rage, but harmed not.

At the first spurt of crimson Rolph leaped forward, crying that it was enough, at which Armand politely lowered his blade, but Foy reviled his second with such curses that he went back to his station gritting his teeth.

The lieutenant raised his hand, withdrawing his eyes an instant from the combatants. Henry listened, and his ear caught the tattoo of hoof beats flinging over the road, mixed with the falling of a lash upon horse's flanks—a frenzy of impatience in the sound. As it came nearer Rolph turned his head with a quick gleam of relief.

At the same instant Armand, swerving far forward, wounded his antagonist in the right wrist, and, Foy's fingers relaxing on the hilt, with a sweeping twist sent his sword rattling a good ten feet away.

Foy was after it to snatch it up, with a snarl more like a wild beast than a man, when an officer, at a gallop, leading three soldiers, broke into the clearing and spurred fairly between.

"Stop!" he shouted, out of breath. "Stop! In the governor's name!"

Armand tossed his sword to the ground. "Hell and fury!" foamed Foy as he sprang back, slashing at the horse's

"Stop! In the governor's name!" legs. "Out of the way, curse you!" The animal plunged aside, and Foy came at Armand like the madman he was.

The officer threw himself off the horse too late, as Henry rushed for-young man stirred, opened his eyes wide on the baron and thrust down his legs. "My lord," he cried gayly, but with weakness and husking breath, "I come early to—keep—my—appointment." He took a step and lurched forward on to the floor.

Lord Fairfax stood up like a blasted tree with two dead boughs left swinging. "Great heaven! The lad! Has Foy killed him?"

"Not yet," Henry answered. "No fault of his, my lord."

The baron shouted for his servants and for cloths, hot water and lily vinegar. "He must have a leech," he said.

"I will ride myself for the doctor at Ashby's Gap," Henry answered. "But I will dress the wound first." With Joe's help skins were spread on one of the couches and Armand laid thereon. Then, with a woodsman's knowledge of wounds, Henry drew his knife and cut away the clothing.

"It is not mortal!" asked the old man anxiously.

"No. But 'twas a foul lunge. Think not he was the poorest swordsman. Never was such a skill seen in the Virginias as he showed this night."

"Is it so?"

"Sir, he held that rat's life on the point of his steel. I swear to you he could have run him through a score of times as he would. They stopped the duel—soldiers from the fort—and that red devil of Dunmore's attacked him when he had thrown his weapon by and was empty handed."

"Ah!" cried the baron.

At length Henry stood up. "I am off to the Gap now. I shall not return with the doctor, since I must go on to Williamsburg tomorrow. But for safety's sake I shall pray him speed."

A struggle showed in the baron's face. No one had ever gone uncheered from his door. He kept open table at the Winchester courts, fed the poorer settlers with his own produce and would have filled the ragged hat of a beggar with guineas. One passionate hatred he had—hatred against the enemies of his king. All were alike to him, high or low. The times, growing beyond him, had put forward patriots. But, all alike, he deemed them vipers that bit the hand that fed them.

As Henry approached the door my lord was fidgeting in his chair. The hand was upon the latch when he could restrain himself no longer.

"Joe," he thundered, "fetch a stirrup cup! You may be a rebel, sir, but, blast my whips and spurs, you shall drink before you go! I could wish you were not an enemy of the king."

"Not of the king," said Henry, and smiled. "Not of the king, but of the king's rule."

A gleam of fierceness, of the uncompromising principle of his life, shot from under the old man's brows. "I hold with no disloyalty."

"I hold," said Henry in a low voice, "with my friend Colonel Washington."

"I abet no treasons," flamed the old man.

Henry's eyes had a sudden gleam of satiric humor. He stretched out the glass the negro had brought him and proffered it to his host.

"I must decline," he said, "to accept hospitality from any man on earth who has sought to say against the character of Colonel Washington."

The baron stood for a moment with his jaw dropped, then coughed. "God knows," he said, "his voice shaking like a child's—" "God knows I've—"

But he got no further. "My dear Lord Fairfax!" exclaimed Henry, and drank the glass at a draft.

Louisville, Ky., May 4.—The threatened contest between former Governor W. O. Bradley and Commissioner of Internal Revenue John W. Yerkes for the control of the Republican state convention and the state central committee failed to materialize at the convention. In two speeches which won him ovations Mr. Bradley declared for harmony and moved that Mr. Yerkes, the temporary chairman, be unanimously declared permanent chairman.

NEW CHWANG FALLEN

Rumor Has It That the Japanese Drove the Russians Out of One of Their Important Centers.

Admiral Togo Again Attempted to Block Port Arthur, But Was Unsuccessful.

St. Petersburg, May 4.—In a report received by the emperor from General Kuropatkin under today's date, it is stated that at least three to four thousand men were killed in the Yalu river fight.

Chee Foo, May 4.—The Japanese landed troops and attacked and captured New Chwang last evening, the Russians falling back to protect the railway."

St. Petersburg, May 4.—St. Petersburg is electrified by the sensational news of fighting on land and sea. From General Kuropatkin, conveying General Zassalitch's report, came graphic details of the battle of Turen-Cheng, as the combat on the banks of the Yalu is officially designated, which

GENERAL KUROKI.

[Commanding Japanese forces on the Yalu.] showed the savage character of the fighting displayed by the Russians in their effort to hold a position commanded by the Japanese and their orderly retreat to Feng Wang Cheng, where they are now intrenched, conducting en route a brilliant rear-guard engagement, in which they inflicted heavy loss on the enemy.

Viceroy Alexieff's command of Port Arthur has been signaled by the repulse of another desperate attempt by the Japanese to close the entrance to the harbor. Adding to this quota of the war news the official report of the appearance of a number of Japanese ships off Kaiping and Siniuchen on the west coast of the Liao Tung peninsula below New Chwang, foreboding the disembarkation of Japanese troops with the intention of cutting off Port Arthur, this war may now be said to have begun in deadly earnest.

JAPANESE REPULSE

Effort to Block Harbor at Port Arthur Successfully Resisted.

Port Arthur, May 4.—The Japanese squadron appeared off Port Arthur after daybreak and engaged the forts and warships. Thirty Japanese prisoners have been captured.

At 1 o'clock in the morning five Japanese torpedo boats were sighted and the Russian land batteries and the gunboat Clikak and the coast-defense vessels Gremishichi and Otavashin opened fire and compelled them to retire. Immediately afterward other Japanese ships were sighted on the horizon. They were headed by a flagship, which was sunk near the entrance of the harbor at 1:20 p. m. After an interval of twenty-five minutes two more fresh ships came on and were sent to the bottom.

At 2:25 four more fresh ships appeared. Three of these blew up on hidden mines. Two of these sank immediately and the other two fresh ships were sunk by the batteries and warships.

The protected cruiser Askold participated in the firing. Fifteen minutes later three more fresh ships arrived.

One of them blew up on a mine, the second vessel was wrecked on the shore and the third was sunk by the Russian shells.

The fresh ships were ten in number and of about 3,000 tons each. It is reported that two Japanese torpedo boats were sunk, the remainder withdrawing in a damaged condition. Eight fresh ships were sunk and very few of their crews were saved. Most of them were killed. Many dead bodies were seen floating about outside the harbor. These were collected by the Russians, who brought ashore and buried them. This new attempt of the Japanese was on a much grander scale than any heretofore made, but the moonlight aided in the discomfiture of the discovered enemy. The Japanese attacked brilliantly, without seeming to notice the murderous fire directed on them. The Russians captured two officers and thirty men.

It is reported that twelve ships had been prepared by the Japanese, but for some unknown reason two of them never attempted to approach the entrance.

It is stated that the crews of the fresh ships included a number of Japanese cadets, who showed extraordinary bravery, especially when the ships were sinking. Several of the crew sat on the topmasts firing revolvers, and then plunged into the sea. It is believed that none of the cadets was saved.

The attempt to close the mouth of the harbor failed.

NOT CONFIRMED

Rumor of the Fall of New Chwang Taken With Reserve.

London, May 4.—The Chee Foo report of the capture of New Chwang is not confirmed from any quarter, and it is hardly likely it is true, as the news could scarcely have reached Chee Foo. The official dispatch from Lieutenant General Sakharoff, however, seems to indicate that the Japanese are directing their attention to this point. The Russian official dispatch, although belated, displays the customary candor in fully confirming the disastrous nature of the rout sustained on the Yalu. To the Russian official frankness in this respect is attributed the universal belief of the Russian people that initial reverses are of no consequence and that eventual triumph is inevitable.

A special dispatch from St. Petersburg asserts that Lieutenant General Zassalitch fell into an ambush owing to the Japanese interrupting a telegram from General Kuropatkin. According to one St. Petersburg correspondent General Kuropatkin is recalling all the troops from the neighborhood of Gensan. He is, the correspondent says, opposed to fighting many minor actions and intends to withdraw all outlying Russian forces.

A Shanghai correspondent says that before evacuating Antung the Russians expelled the population by force. He adds that the Pekin government has refused General Ma's request to be permitted to expel the Russian troops from the west of the Liao river. It is understood that all non-combatants have left and all official documents and valuables have been removed from Dalny, and that all the guns from the disabled warships at Port Arthur have been taken ashore to the forts.

An Obstinate General.

St. Petersburg, May 4.—General Kuropatkin, in telegraphing to the emperor, blames Lieutenant General Zassalitch's obstinacy in refusing to retreat in time, despite the orders he received.

Disastrous Cloudburst.

Austin, Tex., May 4.—This section and all central Texas was visited by a terrific cloudburst yesterday. The principal streets of the city were wrecked by the flood and great damage was done to crops in the fields.

The Japanese made another attempt to block Port Arthur and the Russian commander reports he sank eight fresh ships and two torpedo boats sent in by Togo.

SHORT AND SWEET

Republican Platform Will Not Be a Burdensome Document It Is Said.

REVISION OF TARIFF

This Will Be One of the Most Important Subjects Dealt With in the Coming Campaign.

Conferences of Leaders of the Party With a View to Preparing Declaration of Principles.

Washington, May 4.—The platform to be adopted by the Republican national convention has been among the topics discussed at the conferences which have taken place recently at the White House, in committee rooms at the capitol and at different residences where a number of Republicans have been assembled. Senator Lodge, who is slated for chairman of the committee on resolutions at the convention, has prepared preliminary sketches of various topics that he thinks should be treated and has submitted them to senators and others for their approval or suggestion as to amendment. It is expected that before convention meets a complete platform will be prepared which will have the approval of the president.

The principal feature of the platform will be the tariff plank, which will declare in the strongest terms the adherence of the Republican party to the principles of protection, but will not bind the party not to revise the tariff. It will say that the party is not committed to any schedule, but that changes should be made only when changed conditions of business or the treasury render it necessary or advisable. Persons present at the recent conference say it already has been agreed that the tariff will be revised in the 59th congress if the Republicans win in November.

There is at present a determination to make the platform as brief as possible, consequently the endorsement of the administration and the acts of the party will be put in compact form. This endorsement will be a general approval of the course of the president and of the actions of the Republicans in congress.

The plank concerning trusts in effect will declare that the laws for the regulation of monopolies against commerce were enacted by the Republicans and that the enforcement of such laws have been only by a Republican administration. It also will say that it is not the policy or intention of the Republican party to assail legitimate industry and business or to infringe on the rights of persons or property. Special attention will be devoted to the phraseology of this plank.

Some difficulty has been experienced in finding the proper wording for a reciprocity suggestion. Nearly all the senators who have attended the recent conferences have contributed their share toward keeping the reciprocity treaties negotiated by the McKinley administration closely confined in committee pigeon-holes. Reciprocity has not been popular in congress, and it was with a great effort that the Cuban legislation was passed.

Senator Aldrich announced when the Cuban bill was under consideration that there would be no more tariff legislation by treaty. If anything is said about reciprocity it will be so worded as to mean that reciprocity shall be confined to such articles as are not in competition with products of the United States.

Mention of the financial question will consist of an allusion to the maintenance of the gold standard by the Republican party and a promise to continue the finances of the country upon a sound basis.

Disfranchisement of the negroes in Southern states will be denounced as an encroachment on rights guaranteed by the constitution.

The demand for restoration of the merchant marine of the country will be renewed, but it is not the intention to endorse any specific plan.

There are some other suggestions as to planks in the platform, but the decision to have the platform as brief as possible may eliminate them from consideration as unnecessary at this time.

IN PLAIN LANGUAGE

Speaker Cannon Puts Away Vice Presidential Suggestions.

Washington, May 4.—"Even at the risk of being accused of declining that which I probably could not get if I desired it, I answer most unequivocally that if the nomination were tendered to me I would not accept it under any circumstances whatever."

Thus strongly did Speaker Cannon in an authorized interview emphasize his determination with reference to the vice presidency. As he concluded dictating what he had to say, the speaker added:

"If there is any language which can be more decisive, write it in."

Turned the Negro Down.

New Orleans, May 4.—The lily-white Republicans who have been recognized as the dominant Republican faction in Louisiana and who hold the federal offices, have nominated an all-white delegation to the national convention.

ANTI-JEWISH RIOTS

Anger of Russians Over Reverse Leads to Outbreak.

Vienna, May 4.—Reports are current here that there were serious anti-Jewish riots in the Bessarabian town of Bender on April 30. It is stated that the rioting began Saturday forenoon, while the congregations were in the synagogues.

The mob smashed the windows of houses in the Jewish quarter, entered the houses and threw women and children out of the windows. A girl was murdered in a most revolting manner, the reports say. Cossacks were sent to restore order.

The outbreak is said to have been due to the anger of the crowd over Russian reverses in the far East. These reports lack official confirmation.

Delegates to General Conference Pour Into Los Angeles by Hundreds.

Los Angeles, Cal., May 4.—Delegates to the 31st Methodist general conference are pouring into Los Angeles by hundreds. Sixteen special trains, twelve over the Santa Fe and four over the Southern Pacific, arrived yesterday. In addition to the delegates that arrived on these specials, many are coming in on the regular trains. Hazard's pavilion, where the general conference will hold its sessions, was thrown open to the delegates and visitors for the first time last night, when a grand sacred concert was rendered by a large orchestra and chorus of 300 voices.

Committees sent out to meet the incoming special trains are laden with fruits and flowers and the visitors are given a characteristic California welcome.

Narrow Escape From Death.

Hazletton, Pa., May 4.—An abandoned portion of the Harleigh workings operated by Stouffer & Howe caved in and eighteen miners employed in one section of the slope had a narrow escape from death. It was at first feared that all had been killed, but by wading through piles of culm that had dropped into the mine they emerged safely from the gangway an hour after the fall occurred. Several thousand people were gathered at the mouth of the slope until the men reached the top.

THE FIRSTBORN.

Why is it that the firstborn child is so often the healthiest of a family of children? The reason seems to suggest itself. As a child follows the mother has less and less vitality; often not enough for herself and none, therefore, for her child.

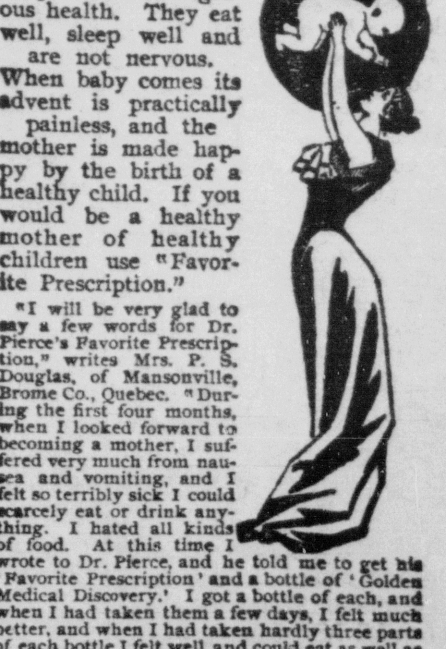

Expectant mothers who use Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription find that it keeps them in vigorous health. They eat well, sleep well and are not nervous.

When baby comes its advent is practically painless, and the mother is made happy by the birth of a healthy child. If you would be a healthy mother of healthy children use "Favorite Prescription."

"I will be very glad to say a few words for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. P. B. Doughty, of Mansfield, Brome Co., Quebec. "During the first four months, when I looked forward to becoming a mother, I suffered very much from nausea and vomiting, and I felt so terribly sick I could scarcely eat or drink anything. I hated all kinds of food. At this time I wrote to Dr. Pierce, and he told me to get his 'Favorite Prescription' and a bottle of 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I got a bottle of each, and when I had taken them a few days, I felt much better, and when I had taken hardly three parts of each bottle I felt well and could eat as well as any one, and could do my work without any trouble (I could not do anything before). I feel very thankful to Dr. Pierce for his medicine, and I tell all who tell me they are sick, to get these medicines, or write to Dr. Pierce."

Those who suffer from chronic diseases are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence strictly private. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure biliousness and sick headache.

AS OLD AS THE PYRAMIDS

That blood poison existed among the ancients has been proven beyond question. It has been traced back thousands of years, and is as old as the Pyramids. This blighting curse has been handed down from nation to nation and from individual to individual till it has spread to all parts of the world.

Contagious blood poison, as it is called in modern times, begins with a small sore or ulcer through which the virus enters the blood. This is followed by inflammation and swelling of the glands of the groins, a red eruption breaks out on the body, sores appear in the mouth and the throat becomes ulcerated, and as the disease takes a deeper hold and the blood becomes more thoroughly infected, the hair and eyebrows drop out, the skin is spotted with copper-colored blotches, the bones and muscles ache, and it seems to the victim of this monster scourge there is not a sound spot in the whole body.

The horror of this awful disease can never be told. The one who contracts it suffers in body and mind, and if the poison is not eradicated transmits the taint to his children, and Contagious Blood Poison thus becomes responsible for many of the ills of childhood—Skin Eruptions, Catarrhal Troubles, Sore Eyes, Scalp Disease, White Swelling, Scrofula and others just as bad. S. S. S., the great vegetable blood purifier and tonic, has long been recognized as a radical and safe cure for Contagious Blood Poison. It counteracts the deadly virus and cleanses and purifies the diseased blood, and under its tonic effects the general health improves and soon all signs of blood poison are gone. The strong mineral remedies, Mercury and Potash, which are so often prescribed for the disease, dry up the sores, skin eruptions and all external signs, but leave the stomach and digestion ruined and the system in such condition that the disease usually returns in worse form than ever.

S. S. S. is guaranteed a purely vegetable remedy. $1.00 is offered for proof that it contains a single mineral ingredient. If you have blood poison write for our special directions for treating one's self at home. Our physicians will furnish any information or advice wanted free of charge.

AND Thos. J. Clark will count Seymour's cash two more years.

THE records of the city will be well kept by genial Fred Everback.

THOSE "whistles," inscribed "I blow etc.," are out of service today. That "whistle" scheme was great.

THE result of the election yesterday insures Seymour a wise and progressive administration for the next two years.

NOW that the election is over it is time to get down to business and push forward for Seymour and Seymour people.

THE price of roosters has gone down in this locality since the election yesterday. This crowing bird has had mighty little to celebrate over for a long time.

HOW about it now Mr. Congdon? Do you yet think the office of city judge should be abolished? If so you might be accommodated next fall when the term of Judge Wesner expires.

AT Bedford the republicans won in the city election Tuesday and they made a clean sweep at North Vernon. Columbus went democratic, P. H. McCormack being elected mayor.

WOULD it not be in place for Judge Wesner to contribute some more editorials for publication? He told in some already published what he thought of himself, he could now tell what he thinks of some other people.

THE extra efforts made by some to elect "Cotton" Brandt no matter what else happened did not pan out as they figured. It is rumored that some of them backed their enthusiasm with some change which the other fellows have today.

WILL the Democrat please announce the name of the winner in that little guessing contest? Who gets the Democrat free for one year for guessing Wesner's majority over Dr. Graessle? THE REPUBLICAN said that the proposition was a safe one for the Democrat to make.

INSTANT RELIEF—Coughs, Croup, Sore Throat—Brazilian Balm, 50 doses 25c.

OLD FOLKS TESTIFY.

Vinol Worth $1000 to A. J. Baker.

The Aged, and All Sons and Daughters of Aged People in Seymour Should Be Interested.

Mr. A. J. Baker of 713 Locust street, Evansville, Ind., writes: "I believe there is no other medicine equal to Vinol for elderly people. I would not take $1000 for the good it has done me. It makes strength for the aged as no other medicine seems to do, and invigorates the whole system. Vinol was first recommended to me for a bad cough, which I could not seem to get rid of. Vinol not only cured my cough, but it made me strong and well, and I enthusiastically endorse Vinol."

This W. F. Peter Drug Co., when interviewed in regard to this matter, said: "We have never sold in our store such a wonderful vitalizer and strength maker for the aged as Vinol: it is nature's remedy for the sick, the weak and the aged."

"Vinol owes its virtue and great medicinal power to the fact that it contains in a highly concentrated form all the active curative properties of cod liver oil, without a drop of the nauseating grease which characterizes old fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions.

"Vinol acts first upon the stomach, toning it up and enabling it to obtain from the food eaten the elements needed for rich, red blood, healthy body material and sound, steady nerves. In this way it repairs worn tissues, checks the natural decline of the aged and never fails to replace weakness with strength."

"In the strongest manner we unhesitatingly endorse and guarantee Vinol to increase the appetite, cure stomach troubles, give strength and renewed vitality to the aged, build up the run down, tired and debilitated, make the weak strong, cure chronic coughs, colds and build up the convalescent, or we will return to the purchaser every dollar paid for it." W. F. Peter Drug Co.

This seemed a strong statement for reliable druggists to make, and we think every person in Seymour ought to take advantage of the W. F. Peter Drug Co.'s offer; as, of course, they have a very wide knowledge of medicines, and what they will, or will not accomplish.—Editor.

THE FUR WILL FLY

Democratic State Convention Promises a Parrot and Monkey Time.

Indianapolis, May 4.—Every day strengthens the opinion that the fur will fly when the Democrats gather here May 12 in state convention for the purpose of selecting delegates to the national convention at St. Louis. There never was a time in the history of the party when there was greater confusion in naming the delegates or when there was a prospect of more contests. Very naturally each of the warring factions is anxious to have control of the committee on credentials which will pass on the rights of the delegates to seats. If Hearst's agents win, then it is very likely that a lot of delegates selected by Taggart and his followers in the interest of Judge Parker will be unseated, but if Taggart's followers are successful in organizing the convention there are a lot of counties that Hearst is depending on that will not cut any figure for him. J. Oscar Henderson, Hearst's manager, made a very significant remark today to the effect that the committee on credentials is not the whole show, and that if it turns the cold shoulder to the appeal of the Hearst delegates for seats, the matter will be fought on the floor. This probably means that the convention will be one of the most spectacular in the history of the party in Indiana.

It is very likely that considerable will be done during the next few days toward shaping the Democratic state ticket for the coming campaign. The ticket will not be nominated until June 20, which is after the national convention, but the gathering of the party workers here next week is liable to develop something. Among the new names mentioned for governor is that of Timothy E. Howard of South Bend, former judge of the supreme court, who, it is said, is not averse to making the race, although he is not seeking the nomination. There is also considerable gossip here now favorable to Allan Zollars of Fort Wayne, another ex-supreme judge, who is regarded as one of the big men of the party, although he is not an active participant in the political game at this time. However, of all the names mentioned it seems that that of Hugh Dougherty of Bluffton meets with the most favor, but it is said on good authority that he will not accept the nomination this time under any circumstances.

If ex-Senator Turpie is able to go to the Democratic national convention at St. Louis he may be selected as one of the delegates-at-large—that is, provided the Hearst people do not control things, for it is pretty generally understood that Senator Turpie does not lean toward him. Senator Turpie is in feeble health and rarely leaves his house, but his mind is clear and there is a possibility that he might be able to go to St. Louis. There are thousands of Democrats in the state who would like to confer another honor on him before he ends his career. If he isn't named as a delegate-at-large it would not be surprising if he should be placed at the head of the ticket for presidential elector.

The result of the city elections yesterday is not regarded by politicians as being significant of what will take place at the fall elections. The Democrats, however, seem to have more than held their own, with the exception of Terre Haute, where the Republicans won a notable victory by defeating Mayor Stegg, who was a candidate for a fourth term. In but few places, however, were party lines closely drawn.

Another Revolt in Java.

Amsterdam, May 4.—A dispatch to the Handelsblad from Batavia, Java, says that a Dutch column captured the Acheinese position at Tjantoe, after a desperate fight in which 190 Acheinese were killed. The Dutch casualties were seven men killed and five officers and thirty-eight men wounded.

Still Working on Scale.

Brazil, Ind., May 4.—The block coal miners of this district have met in delegate convention here for the purpose of making a final effort to secure a settlement of the differences between the miners and the operators. The miners have been working since the 1st of April without a scale.

The McDonald Case.

Bloomington, Ind., May 4.—The trial of James McDonald for the murder of Miss Sarah Schaffer, teacher of Latin at Bedford, is appointed for two weeks hence, beginning on the 16th inst. Both sides indicate that they will be ready at that time. McDonald is still in jail in this city.

Evans Entertained by King.

Naples, May 4.—King Victor Emmanuel entertained Rear Admiral Evans at dinner at the royal palace. The admiral sat in the place of honor, at the right of his majesty, who conversed with him during the entire evening, especially on naval matters.

Postoffice Robbers at Hanna.

Hanna, Ind., May 4.—Burglars dynamited the safe in the postoffice here. The booty secured is estimated at $1,000 in cash, with merchandise taken from the general store in which the postoffice is located.

Hearst Leads in Iowa.

Des Moines, Ia., May 4.—The indications are that the Iowa Democrats in convention assembled will send a delegation to the St. Louis convention instructed for Wm. Randolph Hearst for president.

REPUBLICANS WIN DECISIVE VICTORY

ELECT MAYOR, CLERK, TREASURER AND FIVE COUNCILMEN.

Democrats Elect Marshal, City Judge and Five Councilmen.--An Unusually Heavy Vote Polled.

The voters had their say Tuesday and the republicans are very well satisfied but would be still better satisfied if their whole ticket had been elected. But with the election of mayor, clerk, treasurer and five councilmen, all good men, they have sufficient reason to rejoice. This is a gain of mayor and clerk and three councilmen for the republicans.

The people of Seymour never took more interest in a city election than this one and a greater effort was never made to get out the vote. Over 1600 votes were polled which is the largest vote ever cast here in a city election. Both parties had an unusually large number of workers about the polling places. But everything passed off smoothly except some heated arguments over some unwarranted charges in the Fourth and Fifth wards.

The fight made on Dr. Graessle was fierce but the conservative people were with him and he was elected by a majority of 106. And the voters of Seymour made no mistake when they elected Dr. Graessle mayor.

Thos. J. Clark and Fred Everback proved strong candidates and both had enthusiastic and effective supporters. They received safe majorities.

J. H. Hopewell, for marshal and H. C. Dannett, for city judge, were defeated, but both deserved to have been elected. They would have filled the offices well. Though defeated they are still true republicans and will be found in the future as in the past working in the front rank for the success of the party.

The republican councilmen elected, August Cordes, H. P. Miller, J. W. Morton, H. A. Love and Frank Bretthauer, are all first class men and will serve the people faithfully. Those republican candidates for council, who were defeated, are all good men too and deserved election. Each one of them, however, made a good race against odds.

When the returns began coming in last night the REPUBLICAN office was packed and by 10:30 the crowd in front was so large that it reached to the middle of the street and everybody was anxious to know the result.

The tabulated vote is given in the table below.

MAKING HIM LOOK PLEASANT.

Is an easy thing when we quote our prices on building lumber. A pleasant surprise always awaits the contractor and builder when he visits our yard after getting prices elsewhere and seeing the superior quality of high grade lumber, hard-wood trim, flooring, laths, shingles and that we are selling at bed-rock prices. Our lumber is of high quality, well seasoned and beyond competition, price considered.

Trials of Motherhood

I suffered for nine years with ovarian troubles making life a burden to myself as well as to my family. During that time I had two miscarriages and although we longed for a child to bless our home this seemed impossible. I had constant racking bearing-down pains in the pelvic organs and a pulling through my limbs with frequent headaches. I felt sick at my stomach and vomited frequently and no medicine helped me until I tried Wine of Cardui.

Then my general health improved, the pains gradually lessened and after 18 weeks I was well. I am now the happy mother of a boy eighteen months old and my husband joins me in sending heartfelt thanks to you for your splendid medicine. Without it, I would have been a childless, instead of a happy and well mother.

Mrs. Frederick Nirdlinger
CHAPLAIN, ST. ANDREW'S ASSOCIATION.

WINE OF CARDUI

Wine of Cardui is the most successful menstrual regulator. By regulating menstruation, Wine of Cardui banishes inflammation from the entire female organism and the strengthened ligaments bring the organs back to their proper place. This is what Wine of Cardui did for Mrs. Nirdlinger. It banished the racking pains and burning inflammation and brought her relief. She was restored to health and strength and gives Wine of Cardui the credit of making her able to become a happy mother. This medicine equips a woman for every duty of wifehood and motherhood. There are many suffering women who think that health can never be theirs because they cannot secure the services of a great specialist, but we want to say right here that while Mrs. Nirdlinger lives in Philadelphia, a great medical center, she depended on Wine of Cardui for a cure and she was cured. This same medicine is within your reach. Will you take it?

GOOD CITIZENSHIP

Governor Durbin Makes Some Pertinent Remarks at Purdue Ceremonies.

SCHOLAR IN POLITICS

He Who Seeks Fixed Process of Solution From Text Books Not Always An Imposting Figure.

Educated Person Who Holds Aloof From Politics Under False Impressions Not a Good Citizen.

Lafayette, Ind., May 4.—Eliza Fowler Hall, the beautiful new memorial assembly hall of Indiana stone erected at a cost of $70,000 as a private benefaction on the Purdue university campus, was dedicated today with appropriate ceremonies, in which not only the fifteen hundred students of the institution, but a large number of visitors, participated. Governor Durbin was a guest of the university, and was accorded military honors by the university corps of cadets.

Addresses were delivered by President Stone, representing the university, Mr. David E. Beem of Spencer, representing the board of trustees, George Ade, representing the alumni, and Governor Durbin, representing the state of Indiana. In the course of his remarks Governor Durbin paid a high tribute to the practical character of the work performed by the institution. In reference to colleges and citizenship the governor said:

"Of constructive force, judged by their opportunities, the colleges and universities of this country have apparently contributed too little to civic life. The scholar in politics and in public life is not always an impressive figure, at least to those whose lot it is from day to day to face conditions rather than theories, who must discharge responsibilities rather than personal opinions, and who must follow the promptings of their own conscience and common sense in each situation, as it arises, rather than search for a fixed process of solution in a text-book. The educated person who holds himself aloof from the activities of politics under the impression that he is entirely too immaculate a creation to take any chances on besmirching himself by evil associations, and who from a pedestal of his own construction showers admonition and censure on those guilty of participation in public affairs, is not a reformer who ever reforms anything. He belongs in the domain of spirit, and not of matter. The citizen, educated or uneducated, who is satisfied to be a chronic critic, an everlasting objector, a cynical malcontent in his relation to public affairs, must be reckoned among the most dangerous elements in our national life, whatever the motives which inspire his course of conduct. Good motives do not always make good citizens."

WEEKLY CROP BULLETIN

Conditions in Indiana for the Week Ending Monday, May 2.

Indianapolis, May 4.—Rain with unusually low temperature during the first part of the week retarded the germination of seed planted and the growth of crops already up. These weather conditions also delayed, and in many localities caused an entire suspension of farm work. Later in the week, however, the weather, although the percentage of sunshine was small, was more favorable; the ground became dry enough to work and plowing and planting were resumed.

Reports from all sections are to the effect that a large acreage of wheat is being plowed up; some say all wheat ground, except that seeded to grass, has been or will be planted to other crops, and in only a few localities is as much as a half crop indicated.

Some early sown oats in the south section are up and show a good stand, but there is a considerable acreage yet to be sown in all sections. Plowing for corn progressed rapidly during the latter part of the week, but no planting has been done. Planting potatoes in all sections, making gardens in the central and south sections, and planting watermelons in the southern counties have been greatly delayed by the unfavorable weather. The outlook for fruit of all kinds, except peaches, is fair to good. In a few localities peaches are said to be unfripped, but generally the buds are mostly dead.

He Took It to Heart.

Tipton, Ind., May 4.—John Weaver, a section foreman, took morphine with suicidal intent yesterday. His son told him that he had voted the Republican ticket, and this so enraged the father that he took the drug. He will die.

Weapon Accidentally Discharged.

Fowler, Ind., May 4.—While Samuel Pettinger, near this city, was cleaning his revolver the weapon was accidentally discharged, the bullet striking John B. Wallace in the month, to his fatal injury.

Anderson Dogs Must Be Tagged.

Anderson, Ind., May 4.—The owners of 500 dogs must provide the animals with city tags today and the officers will begin a wholesale slaughter. The new ordinance to this effect is now in force.
